BIOGRAPHY

Boji (formerly known as DJ David B) broke his way into the nightclub scene in 1999 after releasing several mix tapes that put him on the map in Detroit. In 2008, Boji's career launched into overdrive as he was brought on board Channel 955's Bomb Squad (FM 95.5 WKQI Detroit), an exclusive 4-member group of top mix-show DJs that infiltrate the air waves of Metro Detroit on a weekly basis.

Boji's creative ingenuity has served as a platform for Detroit's most formidable productions. He has played in some of the biggest stadiums Metro Detroit has to offer, including The Palace of Auburn Hills, Joe Louis Arena, and DTE Energy Music Theatre.

Clear Channel Broadcasting launched their internet radio service, iHeartRadio, which served as a launching pad for Boji's national following. Boji then launched a mix show, aptly titled "Ministry of House," and the movement began. He spent the next 5 years playing at many of the top clubs on the planet. From Acapulco and Playa del Carmen to Puerto Vallarta and Cancun, our friends south of the border are always game for a late night set of dirty beats with Boji, whose EDM parties have also reached as far as Punta Cana, Dominican Republic, Nassau Bahamas, and Panama City Beach, Florida. You can currently listen, from anywhere in the world, to Boji's mix show, "Elektric Circus" live on Channel 955 in Detroit, MI and iHeartRadio every Saturday from 10 p.m. - 1 a.m. EST. His show streams live on channel955.com/boji. Boji is also live on Hot 107.9 in Panama City Beach, FL every Saturday night from 9 p.m. - 1 a.m.

In 2012, Boji joined forces with Namin, a fellow Detroit artist, to work relentlessly on a new sound that will change the landscape of House music as we know it. The duo formed a group called Heartbeat Synthony and began producing original music that is on course to making a huge impact on the EDM scene in 2013.
